

> euroAtlantic airways submits results for 2006

Lisbon, 10-04-2007

euroAtlantic airways (EAA), owned by Tomáz Metello and the Pestana Group, is set to submit its results for the financial year of 2006 at the Hotel Pestana Palace in Lisbon at 11.30 a.m. on April 17th 2006 (Tuesday). As had already been announced by its founder and Chairman of the Board of Directors Tomáz Metello, euroAtlantic hopes to be listed on the securities' market next year.

The Chairman of the Board of Directors of EAA Tomáz Metello, in anticipation of the figures which are to be made public today, stated: "they're the best results ever achieved ... they're hitting double figures ... they are incredibly important being on the eve of the entry of euroAtlantic onto the capital market and would suggest very interesting demand for future company stocks". euroAtlantic has always turned in positive results and has a sound position in its line of business. By way of reference (2004) EAA took first place in the Exame Magazine "500 Biggest and Best" Portuguese companies operating in the transport segment who achieved the best financial results.
