12-01-2007

euroAtlantic airways transported Sport Lisboa e Benfica to the United Arab Emirates for the Dubai tournament.

The flight was carried out between Lisbon and Dubai and lasted 7 hours 30 minutes, deploying a Lockheed Tristar L1011, the version with 56 executive seats.

According to a communiqué by the carrier "euroAtlantic prepared the plane in such a way as to provide the most relaxing environment to the 39 passengers going to make up the retinue, constantly assisted by eight crew members", having initially confirmed details with the Benfica technical team.

euroAtlantic airways provides the same excellent service to the national teams as it does to those teams it regularly transports worldwide, having been chosen by Real Madrid FC in 2005 for the Asian tour of the "merengues"
