

> EuroAtlantic airways and terraBrasil will celebrate the event with a party at the BBC – Belém Bar Café

Lisbon, July 12, 2010

EuroAtlantic airways (EAA) and terraBrasil, a brand owned by Sonhando – Tourist Operator – are celebrating the resuming of charter operations to the Northeast of Brazil (Porto Seguro and Maceió) with a theme party “the best of Brazil is back” at the BBC, Belém Bar Café in Lisbon, on July 15, 2010, at 23:00 hours.

Located in a reference area of Lisbon the BBC will create a entertainment environment similar to the Island of the Aquariums, a fascinating open air disco in Porto Seguro with four huge and suspended aquariums and several other special settings only reachable by ferry.

euroAtlantic airways and terraBrasil have found in Sogrape – producers of “cahaça” sugar cane brandy which makes the best caipirinha ever - the ideal partner to welcome the hundreds of lovers of the best of Brazil “O Melhor do Brasil” to the BBC’s deck by the Tagus river which once saw the Pedro Álvares Cabral’s fleet of ships sailing away to find Brazil. Involved by the sea breeze, they will dream of the paradise-like type of postcards that once enchanted Pêro Vaz de Caminha – one of the outstanding Portuguese sailors of the Great Discovery Era – who in his letter to the King reported that two of ship’s deportees, sent by the ship on the shore to assess the native’s reception, ended up being received under great festivities. You can view programmes, simulate reservations and elect your favorite agency to plan your trip at the website www.terrabrasil.pt.

The BBC Belém Bar Café’s Restaurant joined the event “The best of Brasil is back” and will serve “Feijoada do Zeno”, the famous Brazilian feijoada – beans and pork - cooked by Zeno Restaurant at 20:00 (Reservations:351 213 624 232).

This is a way of anticipating the taste of Brazil and the pleasure of enjoying holidays with sun, beach, entertainment and lots of good vibrations (axé), while still speaking Portuguese.

Thomas Metello is currently the chairman, CEO and major shareholder of EuroAtlantic airways, the company now celebrating “10 years of charter flights to Brazil” where Grupo Pestana holds a share. EAA was the first operator of charter flights to the northeastern region of Brazil – it started flying to João Pessoa (Paraíba) on September 20, 2000. EEA is the sole shareholder of Sonhando S.A., a company that fully holds terraBrasil, a brand within the perimeter of “terra” brand. Sonhando S.A. flies to Porto Seguro and Maceió on the celebration of the 10th anniversary of EAA’s launching of charter flights, as it is now being announced.
