

> Lisbon: September 15th 2004

Major news: Chairman of euroAtlantic Tomaz Metello second consecutive year on the "Who's Who in the World" list

The name of the Chairman of euroAtlantic airways, Tomáz Júlio Teixeira Metello, for the second consecutive year features on the exclusive list of world personalities The Marquis Who's Who in the World (twenty first edition). The Executive Chairman of the publication published in the USA Gene McGovern confirms in a diploma about Tomáz Júlio Teixeira Metello that there is a biographical record in the book "Who's Who in the World" whose inclusion is limited to those individuals who display an exceptional performance in their specific skills and who have, in this way, contributed to a major improvement in contemporary society.

The Chairman of euroAtlantic airways, Tomáz Metello, had already said that the nominations he has enjoyed are the upshot of the dedication and performance of the employees at the company he founded with the Pestana Group, today occupying a prominent position in world civil aviation, such as the nomination of euroAtlantic by Dun & Bradstreet (D&B) for a «Rating 1» as regards the best Portuguese non-financial companies after meeting strict financial capacity conditions with turnover of over twenty five million euros (5 billion escudos), an excellent financial ratio and positive results over the last six years.

For further information:

José Caetano Pestana
Public Relations Officer of euroAtlantic airways

caetano.pestana@euroatlantic.pt

Phone: (+351) 219 247 360

Fax: (+351) 219 247 390

www.euroatlantic.com