Lisbon, August 22, 2008

São Tomé and Príncipe's national airline, STP AIRWAYS, partly owned by the Portuguese euroAtlantic airways, of Tomás Metello and Grupo Pestana advises that the address www.stpairways.st is available on the internet. Although the information is still being uploaded, the options "destinations and reservations", "contacts" and "press room" are already available, offering cybernauts "contact on the hour".

STP AIRWAYS advises that the phone number 707 102 535 (0.10€+IVA per minute) is now available for Information and Reservations in Portugal. In São Tomé are available the numbers 00 239 221 160 and 00 239 221 967. STP has flights between Lisbon and São Tomé and Príncipe every Mondays at 07:40 a.m. The return flight leaves São Tomé at 3:00 p.m. and arrives in Lisbon at around 10 p.m.

STP AIRWAYS will hold, in September, the official event that marks the launch of the new line.
