

> STP AIRWAYS sponsors WHITE SAND PARTY, a luxurious and leisure event to take place in a paradise like Islet just on the Equator line.

Lisbon, 27-07-2010

STP AIRWAYS, São Tomé e Príncipe national airliner, to sponsor the biggest international luxurious and leisure entertainment event ever in São Tomé e Príncipe - The "White Sand Party" - from July 30-August 1, at Ilhéu das Rolas Resort owned by Pestana. This event was designed to satisfy the "5 Senses": Music, Fashion, Cuisine, Well-Being and Local culture are but the five ingredients to fill the week-end of your dreams.

After the merit gained with the "White Sand Party", STP AIRWAYS associated with Equopartners Events to disseminate São Tomé e Príncipe as a tourist destination. The archipelago's natural beauty already attracted other beauties. So much so that just a few days before the Miss Universe show, current Miss Angola, Jurema Ferraz (Namibe) confirmed her attendance to the show and so did the Portuguese diva Cláudia Jacques, amongst other outstanding public personalities from the world of the Arts to Entertainment. Their presence in São Tomé is attracting the specialized media, namely the magazines CARAS de Portugal and CARAS de Angola to cover the event.

The social programme is extended to the capital of São Tomé where Banco do Equador, the main sponsor of the "White Sand Party", invited Mr. Zeno da Cunha (Zeno Restaurant) to serve its famous Brazilian "feijoada" (beans and pork) to replicate the recent "feijoada" success during the celebration of euroAtlantic airways 10 years of Charter Flights to Brazil at the BBC in Lisbon.

By sponsoring the "White Sand Party", STP AIRWAYS allows São Tomé to enjoy some of the best DJ's of Portugal and Angola, Guga, DJ Ricardo, Bart Cruz, Analodjica e Ruca Hamilton. The party's impact is high likely to promote the potential of this excellent tourist destination in both Portuguese and Angolan markets.
