

> Tomaz Metello's euroAtlantic airways performs a trascontinental aerial cruise

Lisbon, 1st. February 2012

euroAtlantic airways (EAA) started in Paris another fantastic “Aerial Cruise” finishing on February 12th. 2012, as a tribute to the french Postal Aviation, using a cabin version Boeing B757-300ER, with 52 executive class seats. The gifted passengers who follow the South Star can enjoy the following on board: custom service, gourmet menus, and a selected wine and champagne list. After stopover in Dubai and Kilimandjaro, the itinerary includes a safari to the Ngorongoro crater, following to the Victoria Falls at the Zambeze river, Cape Town, Buenos Aires, Panamá and Antigua. The program includes a privileged accommodation in emblematic hotels: Ritz Carlton Dubai, Tai Cape Town, Emperador Hotel Buenos Aires, Panama Gamboa Rainforest Resort or Camino Real in Antigua, some of the most desired resorts in the world. The program valued at 14.000 euros is already sold in the market.

Millionaire tourists taste portuguese wines

EAA's founder and President/CEO, Tomaz Metello, referring to the specific service contracts where its company has know-how and prestige in granting dreamed programs to come true, stated: we've been operating these cruises successfully since 2001. Previously they were performed with the Concorde quoting a 98% of EAA's production contracted abroad. Our facility to adapt ourselves to the client, the professionalism of our marketing staff, Pilots, Engineering and Maintenance, our crew's sympathy, ensure our good performance and success, which become in benefits to the country. Futhermore Tomaz Metello stated: EAA has always promoted abroad the marketing of portuguese products, for this reason we buy in Lisbon most of the national wines and spirits which, according to the reports, are being much appreciated. He concluded: EAA is a show window of this country in more than 534 airports worldwide. A gala soiree in Antigua and a dinner on board close the program.

About euroAtlantic airways: it was founded in August 1993, it's owned in its majority by Tomaz Metello. This company belongs to IATA and it's certified by IOSA, it owns an originally american fleet, a Boeing B777-200ER (Tripe Seven), three Boeing767-300ER, a Boeing 737-800 on fase-in, a Loocheed Tristar L1011-500 and a B767-ER BDSF (BedeK Special Freighter). EAA also owns the majority of the share capital and as well as the STP AIRWAYS management, the official airline of São Tomé and Príncipe.

For further information:

José Caetano Pestana

Public Relations Officer of euroAtlantis airways

caetano.pestana@euroatlantic.pt

Phone: (+351) 219 247 360

Fax: (+351) 219 247 390

www.euroatlantic.com