

> euroAtlantic airways is searching for new business opportunities at the International Paris Air Show Le Bourget, from 20th to 26th. June 2011.

Lisbon, 20th. June 2011

euroAtlantic airways (EAA) participates for the first time at the 49th. International Paris Air Show Le Bourget, starting today and until the 26th. June 2011 at the Le Bourget Exhibition Centre, outside Paris, one of the biggest world events concerning the aviation industry and organized by the Salon International de l'Aéronautique et de l'Espace (SIAE), a GIFAS's subsidiary (French Industries Association) gathering airlines, constructors, providers of technology and services for the sector and players of the worldwide air transport. EAA's stand is located at the Hall 3 A4D – B59.

The Chairman and CEO of euroAtlantic airways Tomaz Metello, will visit the 49th. Paris Air Show, between the next 21st. and 23rd. June. In the extensive agenda are planed several meetings with counterparts, american and european constructors, a note for an invitation of Airbus, with incentives of the economical diplomacy and financial sectors of the EU with EAA Board Directors, wich exclusively operates Boeing aircrafts made in America. The organization reserves the first four days of this event, exclusively for the industry. The 49th. International Paris Air Show numbers show it's magnitude: 2.000 exhibitors, 138 thousand professional visitors, 3.000 accredited journalists and 200 official delegations, an excellent meeting point for strategic decisions making.

For further information:

José Caetano Pestana
Public Relations Officer of euroAtlantis airways

caetano.pestana@euroatlantic.pt

Phone: (+351) 219 247 360

Fax: (+351) 219 247 390

www.euroatlantic.com